

BWI Broking Agreement

In order for Bordeaux Wine Investments Ltd (BWI) to undertake to broker wines on your behalf, please could you print off a copy of the agreement below with your signed acceptance and return this to us by post.

I wish BWI to sell the attached list of wines on my behalf, at the prices stated. I can confirm the following:

- The wines are all owned solely by me and I have the right to dispose of them.
- The wines are immediately available for transfer / delivery, unless specifically agreed otherwise with BWI.
- The supplied descriptions for each wine, including pack size and bottle format are accurate.
- The wines are all under bond, unless otherwise specified.
- They are all in original packaging (original wooden cases, etc.), unless otherwise specified.
- The bottles have all been stored in correct conditions and are of perfect physical appearance. Levels must be in the neck; capsules and labels undamaged.

There must be no signs of leakage. Any discrepancies to the aforementioned must be clearly notified prior to the wines being offered.

- All wines will be transferred under bond to BWI's account at London City Bond, Tilbury (A/C BWIMA), within 10 working days of our order.

It is important for us to know that when we sell a wine on your behalf, to one of our clients, that we will receive the wine from you, as described. If any wines are not received as set put above, it may be necessary for us to source replacement wines from elsewhere. Any additional costs incurred by BWI to fulfil an order as a result of your failure to deliver the wine in appropriate condition and appearance, will be passed on to you in full.

Payment to you for wines sold will only be made after we have:

- received the wines from you, and
- 30 days from receipt of payment to us by our clients for the purchase.
- BWI's commission will be deducted at 10% of the full sale prices.

Please sign and date here to acknowledge your acceptance of these terms and conditions.

.....